

Author of the Month of December

Lois Ehlert

Interesting Facts:

- Born, raised, and still lives in Wisconsin
- She cannot remember a time when she wasn't drawing or sculpting something
- She works from pencil drawings and then cuts out paper and glues it to a background—collages
- Ms. Ehlert writes and illustrates her own books and illustrates books for other authors—Chicka Chicka Boom Boom is her most famous illustrated book
- She is a winner of the Caldecott Award for her book Color Zoo

Some published books:

- Mole's Hill: A Woodland Tale
- Moon Rope: A Peruvian Folktale
- Eating the Alphabet
- Cuckoo: A Mexican Folktale
- Fish Eyes
- Red Leaf, Yellow Leaf
- Waiting for Wings
- Color Zoo*
- The Scraps Book
- Under My Nose
- Boo to You!
- Circus
- Color Farm
- Feathers for Lunch
- Growing Vegetable Soup

*Won Caldecott Medal

(We have them all in our library)