

Superintendent's Student and Staff Accomplishments November 21, 2018

Design Contest: Congratulations to Pocono Mountain West High School sophomore Isabella Salvaggio who won first place in the Great American Smoke Out Design Contest at the Hughes Cancer Center.

Community Service: I would like to thank our West Junior High School students who recently went to the Feeding Families Ministry, located in The Mountain Center, to help out in their food pantry.

Kahoot Challenge: Congratulations to West Junior High School seventh grader, Collin Keller , on winning a spot in the final round of the AATF National French Week, French culture Kahoot challenge. Only the top 20 qualifying scores from schools across the U.S. are eligible to be a part of this 2nd round Kahoot challenge, and Collin is one of them. Collin won a $250 first prize for this national-level competition.

Coca-Cola Scholar Semifinalists: Three seniors from the East High School were selected as semi-finalists for the 2019 Coca-Cola Scholarship Program. Rocco Polimeni, Marco Polimeni and Sebastian Churion were among the nearly 1,900 applicants out of more than 200,000 applicants selected as semifinalists for their outstanding commitment to both their communities and schools. The three will now have to complete a second application to compete for a position as a finalists in this Scholarship Program.

Toys for Tots: As a reminder, the District-wide Toys for Tots toy drive is underway. Anyone wishing to donate a new unwrapped toy may do so at any of our schools, at our East or West transportation buildings or at our Administration Center. The final day for donations is December 13.
